FMI Professional Leadership Partnership

WACA has partnered with FMI to offer their Professional Leadership Education at a discount rate to WACA members. FMI offers a variety of professional project management, leadership, and executive-level development programs and now WACA members can get a significant discount on the various educational programs for both in person and onsite courses. FMI's in-person professional development programs are being offered in different areas of the country. This partnership is available exclusive to WACA members. To obtain the member discount code contact Maria Carlomagno at maria@wallandceiling.org.
